Description

Faneco Single Bathroom Towel hook – Simple, Durable, and Versatile

The Faneco single bathroom towel hook is a practical piece of bathroom hardware made of brushed 304 stainless steel. Its simple design and matte finish make it a perfect match for modern bathroom fixtures and other stainless steel accessories.

Its compact design allows you to install the hanger even where wall space is limited. It's perfect for hanging towels, bathrobes, and clothing.

- 304 stainless steel – a durable material suitable for use in bathrooms and restrooms.
- Matte, brushed finish —a versatile look that complements stainless steel fixtures and other stainless steel accessories.
- 1.5 mm steel thickness – sturdy construction of the hanger itself.
- A 0.9 mm-thick steel bracket —provides a stable foundation for the structure.
- Mounting with 2 stainless steel screws —allows you to securely attach the hanger to the wall.
- Compact dimensions of 55 × 50 × 65 mm —its small size doesn't take up much space and makes it easy to find a suitable installation location.
- Versatile use —suitable for hanging towels, bathrobes, and clothing.
- For private and public restrooms —ideal for hotels, offices, restaurants, service facilities, and public restrooms, among other places.
- 2-year door-to-door warranty – added peace of mind with your purchase.

Its simple design, compact size, and 304 stainless steel make the Faneco towel rack a versatile addition to any bathroom. It is a discreet, functional piece of furniture that can be easily paired with other accessories made of brushed stainless steel.
