Description

- URIMAT EcoLine25 is a modern waterless urinal that reduces water consumption and toilet maintenance costs.
- The narrower, lightweight body is made of durable 5 mm thick polycarbonate and withstands intensive use. Its smooth, non-porous surface makes it easier to maintain a high standard of hygiene.
- The urinal requires no flush cistern, power supply or concealed installation frame, making installation quick and straightforward.
- The outlet is available in 45° or 90° versions for easy connection to the drainage system, while concealed fixings emphasise the product's clean, modern shape.
